

ARMY INSIGNIA BARRED TO CADETS OF CAPITAL

High School Regiment Must Seek New Emblems for Uniforms.

The new officers of the Washington High School Cadets, after passing their examinations, will not be able to wear the regular army insignia which their predecessors in office have worn. The national defense act of June 3, 1915, provides a fine of $300 for the use of the army uniform or officers' insignia by such organizations as the local high school cadets, and the local school authorities will have to decide upon the use of the insignia of the Reserve Officers Training Corps or some other design different from the service insignia. Stephen E. Kramer, assistant superintendent of schools, said last night that the schools probably would decide upon the use of the R. O. T. C. insignia, which while it does not commit them to membership in the junior reserve corps, would save time and trouble if the Board of Education decides that the question of entrance into the reserve corps would probably not be taken up until Capt. E. Z. Steever, who has been detailed by the War Department to instruct the local cadets, arrives in Washington early in November.

PLAN FOR "LADY PATRICIA"

Players' Club Members Discuss Scenic Arrangements.

The arts and mechanics committee of the Dramatic Players' Club met last night at 1121 Vermont avenue to discuss scenic arrangements for the production of "Lady Patricia," with which the club will open its season early in November.

ECZEMA ITCHED AND BURNED CONSTANTLY

Used Resinol—Soon Entirely Cured.

Mar. 10—"I had itching eczema for almost four years. My shoulders, neck, arms and just below the knees were affected. It was simply a constant itching, burning, smarting sensation. The part below my knees was frightful. It would itch so, and with the least scratching become so sore I could hardly stand it to bend them. I could not possibly sit down, because I would naturally have to bend my knees, and that I could not do. I could hardly do my housework. I had tried different soaps, ointments, salves, liniments, etc., all too numerous to mention—all to no avail. At last I learned of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and used them according to directions. That night was the first time in many that I slept in peace, and in a short time I was entirely cured." (Signed) Mrs. G. C. Silsby, Box 30, Rockville, N. Y.

All druggists sell Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. For samples, free, write to Dept. S-S, Resinol, Baltimore.—Adv.

CLUB OF LITTLE GIRLS SEARCHING FOR A NAME

Tiny Playground Children Organize Domestic Science Group.

Wanted—a name.

There is a club of little girls from 8 to 10 years old, on the Georgetown playground, without a name. They will meet on Saturday morning at the club room of the playground to vote on the best name suggested.

The object of the club is to teach the little ones cooking, sewing, crocheting, embroidery, and other forms of domestic science. The plan is to meet every Saturday, cook luncheon under direction of the teacher, and stay all day. "Do your Christmas crocheting early," is their slogan, their intention being to make regular "S. P. U. G." gifts, enough for all their friends, before Christmas. In addition to the work on the ground, they intend to hike occasionally to the woods of Virginia and Maryland, cook their meals al fresco, and incidentally gather chestnuts.

The dues of the organization are not high enough to make it prohibitive. The charge is five cents a week.

Some of the members of the nameless club are Nellie and Katherine O'Connor, Louise Veale, Montana Faherty, Frances Elliott, Louise and Frances Goodchild, Katherine Fry, Agnes Griffith, Louise, Frances and Ruth Nichols, Merita and Thelma Money, Maxine Elliott Chaney, Helen Callahan, and Mary Welsh.

SACRED CHINESE TEMPLE GIVES WAY TO TRADE

The giving way of ancient Oriental conservatism to the new blood and new national ideals of the Occident is seen in the removal of the sacred Temple to the Queen of Heaven at Shanghai to give place for the new building of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce, reported through consular channels to the Department of Commerce today.

This incident is taken to indicate that many of the time-honored customs of China which have proved stultifying to progress and advancement in trade are to give precedence to utilitarian modernism, just as Japan's traditions were shelved to a large extent when Commodore Perry brought the light of Western civilization to the doors of the Nipponese Empire.

SOCIETY OF FINE ARTS PLANS LECTURE COURSES

The Washington Society of Fine Arts will give four lecture courses here this winter. The subjects covered in the courses will be fine arts, modern songs, house furnishing, and decoration. The lectures in the fine arts course will open November 15, with Kenyon Cox discussing, "Mural Painting in France and America."

Nicholas Dauty will conduct the song course, accompanied by Miss Mary E. MacElree, lectures being held every Monday evening in the New National Museum, beginning November 6.

The course in house furnishing will be held in the auditorium of the Woodward & Lothrop department store, and that in decoration in the Museum auditorium.

BUSINESS MEN MAY AID ARMENIAN RELIEF WORK

Leading business men, banks, hotels, and theaters, of the National Capital, will be appealed to today to permit contribution booths for tables to be installed in their establishments to aid the Armenians and Syrians who are facing starvation as a result of being driven from their homes in Asia Minor by the invading Turks. Similar appeals were sent yesterday to all the larger restaurants in the city for permission to put contribution boxes here.

In his appeal on behalf of the Washington auxiliary committee for Armenian and Syrian relief, Dr. M. M. Dolmage cites the proclamation of President Wilson setting aside October 21 and 22 as joint days for the people of the United States to give to this cause. Dr. Dolmage asserts that in addition to the 1,700,000 of these people who have been slaughtered in the name of military necessity, the survivors who have been driven into exile are dying by the hundreds daily from lack of proper nourishment.

BUREAU EMPLOYEES HIT HALF HOLIDAY SCHEME

Opposition to the proposed half holiday every Saturday of the year for employees of the Federal government is being made by a number of employees of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing who are employed on an hour or piece work basis. It is claimed that the loss of a half day every week will materially lessen their salaries.

The matter will be settled upon the return of Secretary McAdoo to the city, as all other bureaus of the Treasury Department, with one exception, have favored the plan.

U-53 MYSTERY SOLVED.

Letter to Von Bernstorff Merely Notified Embassy of Arrival.

The mystery of the letter to Ambassador von Bernstorff brought to Newport, R. I., by Capt. Hans Rose on the German submarine U-53 was solved yesterday afternoon.

The German embassy announced that the letter contained only a formal notification that the U-53 had entered an American port and would depart within less than twenty-four hours.

The embassy pointed out that all German submarine commanders who enter neutral ports must make such reports to the German ambassador in the country visited.

URGES BETTER HIGHWAYS.

Congressman Wants Roads Leading to Maryland Improved.

Representative Mudd, of the Fifth Maryland District, has filed a petition with the District Commissioners for the improvement of streets and roads connecting with the Maryland highways.

Three roads are mentioned in Mr. Mudd's letter—Pennsylvania avenue southeast, from Thirtieth street to the District line, which he asks to have paved; Sixty-first street, which he wishes graded, widened and bordered with a sidewalk from Capitol Heights to Fairmont Heights; and Wheeler road, which he says should be graded from Wahler's Hill to the District line.

DELAYS NEW DUTIES.

Knaebel Will Not Enter Upon Court Work for Several Weeks.

Assistant Attorney General Ernest Knaebel will not assume the duties of United States Supreme Court reporter, to which position he was recently appointed for another week or ten days, according to an announcement made yesterday.

He has several important cases for the government to which he wishes to give his attention before resigning his present position, he said.

BEGIN CELEBRATION OF FEAST OF TABERNACLES

Yesterday at sundown the Feast of the Tabernacles, or Succoth, of the Jewish calendar was inaugurated. Orthodox Jews will hold special celebrations in their tabernacles for eight days, while the reformed branch of the faith will observe the feast for seven days. The occasion is one of thankfulness for the benefits of the past year.

Rabbi Simon delivered an address last night before the Washington Hebrew Congregation on "When a Child's a Child." This morning he will speak on "When a Woman's a Woman."

Rabbi Abramson, of the Above Sholem Temple, at Fifth and I streets, will deliver special addresses today. At Adas Israel Temple, Rabbi Grossman officiated last night and will hold services this morning.

It has been estimated that 50 per cent of industrial accidents can be eliminated, 60 per cent by safety devices and 30 per cent by proper training of workers.

DANIELS DEFENDS U-53.

Says Stephano Was Not Fired Upon Until Passengers Had Left.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels yesterday categorically denied published reports that the steamer "Stephano" was fired upon by the German submarine U-53 before all passengers had left the vessel.

"The Navy Department has not received any indication in any form that passengers and crew were not all in life boats when the Stephano was torpedoed," Secretary Daniels stated.
